

HANDS-ON Felix and Baltimore

Hands-On was a public art project of the Contemporary Museum of Art, the Hirshorn Museum and Sculpture Garden, the Baltimore Community Foundation, the William G. Baker, Jr. Memorial Fund and the Baltimore Office of Promotion & The Arts, Mayor Martin O'Malley. This project was produced in conjunction with the installation of banners by Felix Gonzalez-Torres on area institutions including The Baltimore Museum of Art, the Contemporary Museum and the Walters Art Gallery Museum.

"Felix and Baltimore" is a digitally produced banner by Lisa Moren. Twelve artists in total were invited by a collaborative team of the above institutions to make new pieces for the advertising panels of MTA Buses. The roaming exhibition was displayed on Baltimore City's MTA Buses from November 21 through January 31. Additional copies of the same banners were exhibited at the Contemporary Museum of Art, January 2004.
